EDITORIAL

Every once in a while some one pops up with the "bright idea" that if we pass a LAW limiting the speed at which automobiles can go, to 35 or 40 miles per hour, that will help cut down the fearful toll of lives being taken in accidents.

We commend all efforts to arrive at a solution to this problem of "Sudden Death" upon the highways.

However, our eagerness to find a solution to the problem, should not be the cause of allowing foolish legislation to be enacted.

YOU WILL NEVER DECREASE AUTO ACCIDENTS BY PASSING SPEED LAWS.

Most of those who advocate such a cureall, propose to attach a gadget to all automobiles which will forbid their going over a speed of 35 or 40 miles an hour. We guess that the plan would be to have the makers of the cars so equipt all cars intended to be sold in Virginia. We haven't heard of any plan as to how the nearly 400,000 cars now in use would be so "gadgeted."

Well, first of all we dare anybody to come forward with a speed that is perfect—perfect for travel and perfect for safety. 60 miles per hour on straightways when not meeting traffic is certainly as safe as 30 miles per hour in traffic or around blind curves. A new car can travel 50 miles per hour with as much safety as can some 1928 cars still in use. It is simply out of the question to try to arrive at a given speed limit suitable for such a law.

However were we to pick out some speed, say 33 and 1/4 miles an hour and enact a law to attach a gadget to all cars, we can't see how this would solve the problem.

Would that we could solve such problems by law. Our experience in the era of prohibition should have demonstrated that Utopia is not attainable by legislation.

What of the tourist cars and their tremendous trade value, were we to pass such a law? Would we have mechanics stationed on the borders of the state to attach speed gadgets to incoming cars and take them off outgoing cars? You must recall that Governor Perry recently placed a valuation of 70 millions a year on Virginia's tourist trade. We don't want to drive that away.

We are not so fortunate as to be a mechanic. But we venture to guess that any gadget put on, or any adjustment of a car to make it impossible to go over 33 and 1/3 miles per hour, could, quite easily be taken off or readjusted, and that if we had such a law it would cost ten millions a year to enforce it.

True, perhaps, if all motor vehicles did not exceed 20 miles per hour under any circumstances, there would be fewer accidents. It is equally as true that if no guns of any kind were made there might not be wars; if we all stopped eating we might not have stomach ache, and a thousand other "ifs!"

The wisest of our leaders know that human problems cannot be solved merely by "passing a law." It isn't as easy as that. So long as people WILL to do certain things they will find a way to do them.

26 PAY MORE

Every time a new packet of the government's check's as benefits of the processing taxes reaches our farmers, we are guilty of raising a cry of joy. Quite properly so.

What we fail to mention, however, is the fact that 26 of the states, including Virginia, pay more to the government in processing taxes than the farmers get back in checks.

THIS V-8 ENGINE'S WHAT OPENED MY EYES!"

Engineers have known for years the undisputed advantages of the V-type engine...simplicity, economy, compactness, ruggedness. But until Ford announced the first Ford V-8 in 1932, no one had found a way to bring these advantages to the low-priced field.

SINCE its introduction this engine has been constantly refined and improved—but the basic features of Ford design have remained unchanged through the production of over two million V-8 engines.

This is the engine that powers the beautiful 1936 Ford V-8... This is the 8-cylinder engine which, because it is V-type and compact, gives "all that extra room" that many a woman has wondered about in the Ford V-8 body.

This is the engine which proved sparkling performance and eight cylinder smoothness are economical if you have a V-type engine with a dual-downdraft carburetor that takes the "gas" used by a four and splits it into eight equal charges.

This is the engine you need for quick, sure, cold-weather starting this winter—the engine that's "opened the eyes" of over two million enthusiastic Ford owners.

You'll find such an engine in no other car at anywhere near the price of the Ford V-8 for 1936—So why not arrange to drive one today?

When you put your money in a savings account you get interest on it. In a checking account you get service for it—and let the bank draw the interest. In return for this interest the bank gives you privileges worth far more to you than the interest itself.

When you maintain a balance commensurate with your use of your checking account privileges, the bank will be reimbursed for the expense of serving you. Otherwise, the bank may properly look to you to meet this expense.
